

WOW! Appoints David Brunick as Chief Human Resources Officer

Brunick brings over 30 years of human resources management experience to WOW!

Englewood, Colo. – January 30, 2017 – WOW! Internet, Cable & Phone (NYSE: WOW) today announced that David Brunick will join the company as the Chief Human Resources Officer. Brunick will start his position on February 6th, 2018 and will report to Teresa Elder, CEO of WOW!.

Brunick comes to WOW! with more than 30 years of human resources management experience in the cable and telecommunications industry. Most recently as Senior Vice President and Chief Human Resources Officer at Adelphia Communications, Brunick oversaw more than 14,000 employees. Previously, Brunick served as Senior Vice President-Human Resources for AT&T Broadband with responsibility for the human resources function for 40,000 employees. He has also previously served as Vice President-Human Resources for MediaOne domestic broadband business.

Earlier roles included human resources leadership positions in US West Media Group, US West Communications, and Goodwill Industries of Denver. In addition to his broad human resources background, Brunick has several years of experience in the mental health field, most recently as CEO of Maria Droste Counseling Center, a mental health agency.

“David’s extensive industry experience and significant record of leadership in all aspects of the human resources function will bring an invaluable capability to WOW! as we build a high performance organization powered by an engaged, innovative and diverse workforce,” said Teresa Elder, CEO of WOW!.

Brunick holds a Master’s degree in Management and Organizations and a Bachelor’s degree in Business Administration from the University of Colorado. In addition, he is a Doctor of Behavioral Health and has a Master’s degree in Marriage, Family and Child Therapy.
